25X1A 1. Transmitted under separate cover are subject documents and a memorandum copy of Letters of Authorization applicable to [redacted] for your information and retention.

25X1A 2. In connection with the rather lengthy discussions that have been held in connection with the payment of per diem to contractor type 25X1A personnel and as promised in [redacted] 4142, dated 31 August 1956, you are 25X1A advised that [redacted] was contacted on this subject and informed me in 25X1A most specific terms that our paying per diem to his personnel would 25X1A create far-reaching problems for [redacted]. He wanted it made very clear 25X1A to his supervisory official at [redacted] that the per diem paid individuals 25X1A while at [redacted] did not have the approval of [redacted]. He further stated that the written agreement between the company and its employees considered remunerations other than room and board during the process of establishing the more than adequate salary and bonus rates.

25X1A 3. [redacted] was contacted concerning this subject on 31 August
25X1A 1956, and he desires that we pass on to his personnel the assurance that [redacted] intends to live up completely with the provisions of their written agreement with each employee and that further remunerations are not sanctioned by [redacted]. [redacted] reiterated the statement made by the 25X1A
